The Policy of Honesty

This great shipment of Brunswick phonographs comes as the latest achievement of the House of Schneitter—a record gained as the natural result of a business enterprise founded upon a policy of honesty—honesty in advertising, in merchandise, in dealing with our patrons. Not even the slightest misrepresentation has been countenanced.

The Original Brunswick Home

The Schneitter Athletic Goods Co. is the original Brunswick Phonograph agency in St. Joseph and in the surrounding territory. The sound judgment and far-sightedness of this company in selecting the Brunswick to represent has been vindicated amply by the satisfaction this wonderful machine has brought to its owners. Additional proof lies in the fact that other concerns in this section have sought the Brunswick agency eagerly, but the Schneitter Athletic Goods Co. remains the original Brunswick House in this vicinity.

Features of Schneitter Service

Wherever you find a Brunswick phonograph in this city you find an enthusiast for Schneitter's, which, again, is a result of Schneitter's policy combined with the satisfaction the Brunswick has given and the service rendered by this establishment—service after a sale is made as well as before. That is one reason the Schneitter Athletic Goods Co. outsells by far any other Brunswick dealer here. If you are thinking of buying a phonograph, let us get in touch with you. The Brunswick is the machine to buy and Schneitter's is the house to buy it from. A demonstration in our show rooms or a free trial in your own home places you under no obligation to us. It will, however, convince you of the truth of these statements and add you to our list of Brunswick and Schneitter enthusiasts.
